

If you want pictures, perfume, paper lace and cardboard, you can get them with toilet soap; but they only add to the selling price and do not improve the soap. Sometimes an elaborate wrapper is used to sell a poor soap. Ivory Soap is put up in a plain, unpretentious wrapper, but is the purest soap manufactured.

TRAINS COLLIDE IN DENSE FOG. FOOTBALL PLAYER'S INJURIES FATAL.

Six Trainmen Killed and Two Others Injured in Wreck Near New Hope, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 12.—Two heavy freight trains, one of them a double-header, collided in a dense fog near New Hope, Ky., on the Knoxville division of the Louisville and Nashville, to-day, killing six trainmen and injuring two, one probably fatally.

The dead: MARTIN GRAVES, engineer; MARTIN CONNOR, engineer; EDWARD STURGES, engineer; JOHN REYNOLDS, fireman; WILLIAM LEVY, fireman; H. H. LEACH, fireman.

Injured: R. H. HUME, head brakeman; will probably die.

AR. WINKLER, head brakeman.

The trains met on a reverse curve at the top of an embankment thirty feet high.

The three engines were completely demolished and nearly every car on both trains landed at the foot of the embankment.

Fire soon broke out and fifteen cars of merchandise were destroyed.

Special relief trains were sent from this city and Lebanon. The bodies of the trainmen were recovered and delivered to their families.

A carload of gunpowder reached by the flames exploded with terrific force. None of the rescuing party was injured.

YOUNG GIRL IN OPEN SHOP CASE. JAIL AT CLAYTON.

Jennie Foster Charged With Stealing Diamonds Valued at $350.

ONLY SEVENTEEN YEARS OLD.

Alleged to Apply for Position at Housework to Enable Her to Locate Valuable Jewelry.

Jennie Foster, a 17-year-old girl, who gave her address as No. 247 Shenandoah street, is a prisoner in the Clayton jail, serving a sentence for stealing a pair of opera glasses from Mrs. T. H. Rogers of Clayton and awaiting trial on a charge of stealing $350 worth of diamonds from Mrs. W. G. Hutchins of Foster Park.

In addition Sheriff Hencken is looking for other women, who, it is said, have been victims of the young woman's pathetic stories during the last six weeks.

Jennie Foster was arrested yesterday morning by Constable Fred Lenz at the intersection of the Hanley road and Rock Island tracks after a half mile chase. Mrs. Rogers started the chase and the Constable and several citizens of Clayton joined in.

After her arrest the Sheriff telephoned for Mrs. Hutchins, who reported about a month ago that a servant, giving the name of Jennie Foster, had stolen a diamond brooch, valued at $25 and a diamond ring, valued at $50, from a drawer of her dresser. Mrs. Hutchins charged Clayton yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and immediately identified the prisoner as her missing servant girl.

After the girl applied to her for work, saying she had a sick mother living on Chouteau avenue just west of South Broadway, and that she had support her. Out of compassion Mrs. Hutchins gave her a place and sent her to clean the house. Before doing so she took the precaution of locking the dresser drawer, but the above one was removed and the jewelry obtained in this manner.

About three hours after she was employed the girl went outside to get a bucket of water from the cistern. This was the last seen of her by Mrs. Hutchins until yesterday. She searched the dresser within ten minutes after her departure and discovered the robbery.

Yesterday morning she applied to Mrs. Robert Shackelford on Meramec avenue in Clayton, for a place, but did not succeed. She then went to Mrs. Rogers' car back to St. Louis, as the girl said she had no money. Mrs. Rogers went upstairs to get a key and when she returned she found a pair of opera glasses and started to run. Mrs. Rogers gave chase.

When Jennie was arrested she begged Mrs. Rogers not to prosecute her, saying it would break her mother's heart. She was locked up. So close were her tears that the spectators who had gathered about the car and the girl's mother, who was in the car, could not see her face.

The girl is about 5 feet 2 inches tall, slender, has a shapely complexion, wears a loose-fitting dress and a white apron. She is a native of St. Louis and is said to be a stenographer for the Donovan company, a quantity of canvas 40 days. She said she was taken sick and left because she did not think herself fit to work.

Several similar robberies have been reported from Kirkwood, Greenwood and North Cabanne.

ST. JOSEPH FIGHT SETTLED.

Those Interested in Higher Prices Say That They Will Go to Thirty Cents Per Pound.

New York, Nov. 12.—An effort is being made to bring the turkey market to a close. It is claimed by those interested in higher prices that turkeys will be selling for 30 cents a pound before Thanksgiving day arrives. At present the price is 20 cents a pound and the birds are fairly abundant.

It is the opinion of those who do not see any reason why prices should go above what they are at present, and say that 30 cents is the prevailing price for those who insist on having turkey for Thanksgiving.

"It is the opinion of those who do not see any reason why prices should go above what they are at present, and say that 30 cents is the prevailing price for those who insist on having turkey for Thanksgiving."

While the prices of this retail dealer are the same as those of the wholesale dealer, the wholesalers are not so sure as to low prices. They claim that the turkey is so plentiful that it is not worth the trouble of getting it. They claim that the turkey is so plentiful that it is not worth the trouble of getting it.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETS.

Seventh Annual Convention in Session at Columbia.

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 12.—The seventh annual Missouri Christian Endeavor Convention opened in Columbia this afternoon with a rather limited attendance. The St. Louis delegates arrived this afternoon and practically composed the convention, as very few from other places are here. Many more are expected to-night and in the morning, when the total attendance is expected to be about 100.

The Reverend W. B. Ewing, pastor of the Columbia Presbyterian Church, presided over the opening exercises. A few remarks by Guy M. Withers of St. Louis, president of the society, addressed the convention. The Reverend Perry J. Jennings of Kirkwood, acting president of the Missouri Convention, presided over the opening exercises.

Reports made by the district presidents indicated that the work of the society has been very successful. Many new members have been added and the work of the society has been very successful.

To-night's meeting consisted of a short business session, after which address was made by the Reverend Perry J. Jennings of Kirkwood, acting president of the Missouri Convention, presiding over the opening exercises.

DEATH ENDED LITIGATION SUIT.

Court Dismissed Litigation Instituted by Mrs. Platt.

The last entry in the divorce litigation between Ella Durbin Platt and Elroy S. Platt, who committed suicide in Pittsburgh, Pa., was made yesterday in Judge Wood's division of the Circuit Court, when Platt's death was suggested and Mrs. Platt's suit was dismissed.

The order of dismissal, which was a formal proceeding, was made at the request of Mrs. Platt's attorney, C. D. Hall. Mrs. Platt asked for the restoration of her maiden name, Dustin.

This could not be done under the circumstances, and she will have to retain her married name unless she brings a separate action to have it changed. The suit was the second divorce case between the Platts. He sued first, but withdrew his petition.
